

In the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico

Francesca Tuoni,
Plaintiff,

v.

No. 1:16-cv-1291 GBW-KBM

Metropolitan Property and Casualty
Insurance Company,
dba MetLife Auto & Home,
Defendant.

Second Amended Complaint for Breach of Contract and Bad Faith

This Claim concerns Plaintiff Francesca Tuoni's underinsured motorist coverage pursuant to her automobile liability insurance policy with Defendant MetLife.

General Allegations

1. Plaintiff is a resident of Bernalillo County, State of New Mexico.
2. Defendant is an insurer organized and existing under the laws of a state other than New Mexico, but is authorized to conduct business in New Mexico.
3. The insurance contract at issue herein was made between the parties, and delivered to Plaintiff, in Albuquerque, New Mexico.
4. At all times pertinent hereto, Plaintiff was the driver of her car insured by Defendant Metropolitan Property and Casualty Insurance Company dba MetLife Auto & Home (referred to herein as "MetLife"). The insurance policy was issued to Francesca Tuoni, policy no. 0542527760, and was in effect on the date of the collision in this case, September 13, 2005. Attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 1 is a copy of the declarations page describing the coverage and policy limits applicable to this claim, and the pages describing the Underinsured Motorists Coverage.

5. On September 13, 2005, while driving her insured automobile, Ms. Tuoni was broadsided on the driver's side by a vehicle which ran a red light at a high rate of speed at the intersection of Lomas and Girard in Albuquerque. The driver of the other vehicle was Melody Ripley.

6. The collision was caused by the negligence and carelessness of Melody Ripley.

7. As a direct and proximate result of the collision, Francesca Tuoni has suffered severe personal injuries, impairment, disability, and pain and suffering; she was made to incur medical treatment and bills. She has suffered permanent injury and disability and loss of enjoyment of life.

8. After the collision and as a result of the negligence of Melody Ripley and the injuries suffered by Francesca Tuoni, Ms. Tuoni obtained a policy limits settlement of $25,000 with Ripley's automobile liability insurance carrier. Defendant MetLife gave consent to that policy limits settlement.

9. The policy limits settlement with Ripley's insurance carrier was insufficient to cover the damages incurred by Plaintiff Tuoni, so she made a demand for settlement with Defendant MetLife pursuant to the under-insured motorist provisions of Tuoni's insurance policy, Ex. 1.

10. Plaintiff has performed all conditions precedent to her right to receive insurance proceeds under the MetLife insurance policy for her losses and injuries caused by the negligence and carelessness of Melody Ripley.

11. Despite Plaintiff's settlement demand made to Defendant MetLife, the defendant has failed and refused to offer any amount for settlement of Plaintiff's damages suffered as a result of the collision. Defendant has further stated that the demand is “outside the applicable statute of limitations.”

12. There is underinsured motorist bodily injury coverage in the amount of $100,000 limits available to Plaintiff under the terms of the insurance policy, subject to reduction by the amount she received from the at-fault driver’s insurance carrier.

13. After MetLife consented to the third party settlement of $25,000 on February 26, 2010, the parties engaged in correspondence, production of medical records and information, and exchange of phone calls concerning Ms. Tuoni’s medical treatment, injuries, medical expenses, and MetLife’s evaluation of the underinsured motorist claim. Specifically the following letters were exchanged with interspersed phone calls. This is not an all-inclusive listing of the letters, because Plaintiff does not possess copies of all correspondence and some is redundant:

Exhibit 2: MetLife to Plaintiff’s counsel Robert Avila dated April 6, 2010,

Ex. 3: MetLife to Avila dated April 30, 2010, stating: “[W]e believe that the insured has been fairly compensated for her loss, thereby, we will be unable to make any offers at this time.”

Ex. 4: Avila to MetLife 5/19/2010 asking for a copy of the insurance policy.

Ex. 5: MetLife to Avila 5/28/2010 discussing the claim and again stating “[W]e believe that the insured has been fairly compensated for her loss, thereby, we will be unable to make any offers at this time.” The letter invites additional information.

Ex. 6: Avila to MetLife 7/9/2010 providing further documents, discussing the claim, asking for referral to counsel for arbitration or litigation, and offering an Independent Medical Examination.

Ex. 7: MetLife to Avila 7/28/2010: “We will respond to your request respectfully [concerning litigation or arbitration and offer of an IME].” (emphasis added)

Ex. 8: Avila to MetLife 8/25/10 asking for follow-up.

Ex. 9: MetLife to Avila 10/13/2010 stating:

[W]e continue to find it difficult to causally relate the head injury and the significant amount of treatment to the above accident. Therefore, we believe that the insured has been fairly compensated for her loss and will be unable to respond to your request for Arbitration and/or an IME.

Looking forward to speaking with you soon regarding this matter.

Ex. 10: MetLife to Avila 11/17/2010 asking: "Please contact me at your earliest convenience so that we can move toward resolving your client's claim." (emphasis added)

Ex. 11: MetLife to Plaintiff's new counsel John Tiwald 1/9/2012 asking for "medical documentation as it becomes available, this will help us maintain proper reserves for this claim." (emphasis added)

Ex. 12: MetLife to Tiwald 5/11/2012 seeking to "discuss your client's claim in more detail."

Ex. 13: MetLife to Tiwald 8/24/2012, stating: "[P]lease send me any additional copies of your client's medical and wage records for additional consideration." (emphasis added)

Ex. 14: MetLife to Tiwald 1/25/2013: "As per our recent conversation, please provide us with updated status for consideration of Francesca Tuoni's continued treatment."

Ex. 15: MetLife to Tiwald 12/13/2013: "Please contact me at your earliest convenience so that we can move toward resolving your client's claim." (emphasis added)

Ex. 16: Tiwald to MetLife 7/18/2016 submitting formal settlement package. (This is the first page of the 27-page letter with package of medical records. The complete letter and package of records will be produced to defense counsel and the Court upon request.)

Ex. 17: MetLife to Tiwald 9/29/2016. Denial of claim: "[I]t is our position that the UIM claim is outside the applicable statute of limitations."

14. The statute of limitations for making the underinsured motorist claim is settled for New Mexico in the case of Brooks v. State Farm Insurance Company, 2007-NMCA-033, 141 N.M. 322 (Ct.App. 2007). The case addresses this question: "When does the six-year limitations period for contract actions begin to accrue on a claim raised under an uninsured motorist policy?" Brooks, ¶ 2. The Court of Appeals answers:

[T]he limitations period for seeking UIM coverage does not begin to run until there is a justiciable claim based on a “failure to do that which is required under the terms of the policy.” Until that time, the parties are performing according to the bargained-for obligations under the policy, and there is no cause to seek judicial relief.” Id. ¶ 15. (internal citations omitted).

15. MetLife’s letter of 10/13/2010 (Ex. 9) stated it would not agree to arbitration. This statement was consistent with the insurance policy (Ex. 1) which requires consent of both parties for arbitration.

16. As of MetLife’s letter to Tiwald of January 9, 2012 (Ex. 11), MetLife was still performing according to its “bargained-for obligations under the policy,” and “there [was] no cause to seek judicial relief. Brooks at ¶ 15. Specifically, Defendant requested continued “medical documentation as it becomes available, this [sic] will help us maintain proper reserves for this claim.” (Ex. 11, emphasis added).

17. MetLife’s letter to Tiwald of January 25, 2013 (Ex. 14), demonstrates that the parties remained engaged in negotiations over the value of the UIM claim in compliance with the insurance contract. Brooks at ¶ 20. Specifically, MetLife stated: “As per our recent conversation, please provide us with updated status for consideration of Francesca Tuoni’s continued treatment.”

Breach of Contract

18. Plaintiff incorporates all other allegations of this Complaint.

19. The insurance policy (Ex. 1) states that Defendant MetLife “will pay damages for bodily injury sustained by you . . . caused by an accident arising out of the . . . use of an underinsured motor vehicle, which you . . . are legally entitled to collect from the owner or driver of an underinsured motor vehicle.”

20. Defendant has failed and refused to pay those damages under the terms of the insurance policy.

21. Defendant has breached its contractual obligation to pay the damages incurred by Plaintiff.

22. The refusal to pay the damages in the circumstances of this case is unreasonable.

Bad Faith

23. Plaintiff incorporates all other allegations of this Complaint.

24. There is implied in every insurance policy a duty on the part of the insurance company to deal fairly with the policy holder.

25. Fair dealing means to act honestly and in good faith in the performance of the contract.

26. The insurance company must give equal consideration to its own interests and the interests of the policy holder.

27. An insurance company and its employees act in bad faith when they refuse to pay a claim of the policyholder for reasons which are frivolous or unfounded.

28. In deciding whether to pay a claim, the insurance company and its employees must act reasonably under the circumstances.

29. The acts of the Defendant in choosing to deny Plaintiff's claim based on its letter of 4/30/2010 (Ex. 3) was unreasonable and unfair in light of the continuous communications between the parties.

30. The acts of the Defendant in denying the claim in these circumstances was a breach of its duty to give equal consideration to the interests of the policy holder and to its own interests.

31. The acts of the Defendant constitute an unreasonable failure to pay a first party coverage claim, entitling Plaintiff to an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs under NMSA § 39-2-1.

32. The actions of Defendant were willful, reckless, malicious, oppressive, and in bad faith or fraudulent, entitling Plaintiff to recover punitive damages in an amount to be determined.

Unfair Insurance Claims Practices

33. Plaintiff incorporates all other allegations of this Complaint.

34. Defendant's denial of the claim constitutes an unfair and deceptive practice and is prohibited by § 59A-16-20, NMSA 1978, as follows:

59A-16-20.E: not attempting in good faith to effectuate prompt, fair and equitable settlements of an insured's claims in which liability has become reasonably clear;

35. Defendant's denial of the claim is a bad faith breach of its duty to act honestly and in good faith. Travelers Insurance Co. v. Montoya, 90 N.M. 556, 566 P.2d 105 (Ct.App.1977); UJI 13-1702 NMRA; and other New Mexico case law.

Wherefore Plaintiff asks the court for judgment against Defendant as follows:

A. For an award in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendant in an amount sufficient to compensate Plaintiff for all damages, injuries, and losses which she is legally entitled to collect from the owner or driver of the underinsured motor vehicle;

B. For damages for Defendant's bad faith, punitive damages, attorney fees, costs, and interest recoverable under the law;

C. For her damages, attorney fees, and costs pursuant to § 59A-16-30 NMSA;

- D. For her attorney fees and costs pursuant to § 39-2-1 NMSA;
- E. For prejudgment interest;
- F. For such other and additional relief as is proper under the law.

When arbitration applies, it will take place under the rules of the American Arbitration Association, unless other means are required by law or are agreed to by the injured party and us.

Our fair share is the proportion that our limit bears to the total of all applicable limits. However, if you do not own the motor vehicle, our insurance will be excess over other similar uninsured or underinsured insurance available but only in the amount by which the limit of liability of this policy exceeds the limits of liability of the other available insurance. If there is other excess or contingent insurance, we will pay our fair share.

RE: My Client/Your Insured: Francesca Tuoni
Your Claim No.: DAB418670
Date of Loss: September 13, 2005

Dear Anniece:

I had hoped to speak with you last week as we had planned, but you have not returned my phone call. Pursuant to our conversation it would appear that you may have overlooked all of the references regarding Ms. Tuoni's head injury and/or confused the other bodily injuries with the issues related to her head injury.

I would ask that you review these highlighted portions of her medical records in order to link the initial injury with her subsequent care. You stated to me in our telephone conversation that she did not complain of a head injury until over one year after the collision. As you will see with the enclosed records, Ms. Tuoni was complaining immediately after the collision of pressure in the back of her head, as well as dizziness, memory loss and inability to hold certain words. As she continued to receive medical care many of these symptoms did resolve. The doctors who were treating her, however, felt that she may have suffered a traumatic brain injury and therefore recommended the neurological testing.

I want to clearly establish that this office never prescribed nor recommended any particular care, but did, however, discuss with Ms. Tuoni the various types of imaging and testing that are available with a potential closed head injury. This is not only appropriate, but it is essential for counsel to explore the realm of medical care in the context of her concerns about her injury.

We have requested from MetLife on numerous occasions a copy of her policy of insurance. This has yet to arrive. In the event you do not change your position regarding Ms. Tuoni receiving full compensation for her claim, there must be a determination on how the claim will be resolved. There should be policy provisions that addresses dispute resolution. This production, however, does not cure the fact that your company has not provided the policy of insurance after numerous requests for review.

We are also very concerned you are not only discounting her head injury, but also the chronic and permanent nature of the cervical spine injury. By denying her coverage from her underinsured motorist you are not attempting in good faith to effectuate a prompt, fair and equitable settlement of her claim in which liability has become reasonably clear. You are also compelling your insured to institute litigation to recover amounts due under the policy by offering her nothing.

Your letter of April 30, 2010 contains no statement whatsoever regarding the basis of your determination that you "believe that the insured has been fairly compensated for her loss, thereby, we will be unable to make any offer at this time." Your insured hereby demands that should you maintain this position, after having reviewed the highlighted information herein, that you provide a reasonable explanation of the basis upon which you rely upon to deny her claim. This should be specific and directly relate to medical records and your determination as to the value of her claim. Your insured is entitled to a specific, concise statement as to all reasons for denial of her claim pursuant to New Mexico Law.

Given the permanent nature of her cervical spine injuries as well as the closed head injury that Ms. Tuoni suffered, she needs your help more than ever to resolve her claim. People necessarily look to their insurance company for relief as they believe that their company will act in good faith at all times.

Please contact me upon receipt. We expect an answer within ten (10) days and immediate production of her policy of insurance.

Sincerely,

ROBERT J. AVILA

Dear Mr. Avila:

This letter is to acknowledge your letter dated May 19, 2010. In your letter you assert that we may have overlooked all of the references regarding Ms. Tuoni's head injury and/or have confused the other bodily injuries with issues related to her head injury. You have also confirmed via voicemail, that you have received a certified copy of the insured's policy.

We have completed our review of the medical records provided by your office. The medical records reveal that Ms. Tuoni treated on the date of loss for pain in the right side of her neck and shoulder. She advised at that time she had no loss of consciousness. She was diagnosed with a cervical strain and recommended heat and ice. Later that month, Ms. Tuoni sought treatment for complaints of right anterior chest pain with chest x-ray which was normal. She was referred for physical therapy, but sought massage therapy instead. According to the medical records, these initial complaints of neck and chest resolved.

The insured sought treatment on the scene by EMS, we have no records of this encounter to review for any complaints of head injury. Our findings on exams by PMR (Garza) and 3 neurologists was mildly decreased cervical range of motion and some tenderness. No neurological symptoms, nor changes in motor sensory. Due to these findings it is difficult to casually relate a closed head injury or concussion as a result of the above accident. We also find that no diagnosis was made of possible post-traumatic brain injury until 1 year later. All testing for possible head injury was normal, (Brain MRI, EEG) as well as the neuropsychological evaluation was inconsistent with brain injury. The psychologist noted no malingering, but that the claimant was pre-occupied with her health.

The insured sought treatment for 4 years as a result of the above accident and after careful review and evaluation of her claim, we find it difficult to casually relate the significant amount of treatment to the above accident.

We also have requested to obtain missing records to review the specialist reports. This request included obtaining records from the following:

EMS for date of loss

Chiropractor Dr. Russo after 8/30/2006 to present, he also ordered current Physical Therapy

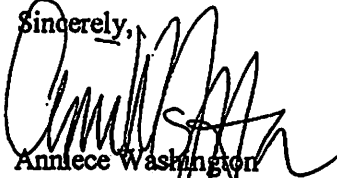

Mr. Fahey, MT regarding Rolfing Testing, was this ever done.

John Sloan MD, he ordered the lumbar MRI and several of the consults.

Thank you for your time in this matter, however, based on the above evaluation, we believe that the insured has been fairly compensated for her loss, thereby, will be unable to make any offers at this time.

I appreciate your allowing me the opportunity to provide you with additional requested medical records. We enclose the following:

1. Albuquerque Fire Department Incident Report, 09.13.05
2. Francesca Russo, D.C., B.C.A.O. records from November 2006 to 4.20.10
3. Brian W. Fahey, faxed 06.08.10
4. Dr. Sloan report 01.21.07

The Albuquerque Fire Department (AFD) report that we obtained, based on your request, establishes the head and body trauma suffered by Ms. Tuoni was caused by the high impact collision. AFD arrived soon after the collision and assessed Ms. Tuoni for trauma. She described her injuries to the neck and as suffering from an immediate onset of headache and overall body trauma. The EMS detailed her trauma in the report. A person does not have to lose consciousness to have suffered a closed head injury. (Please access the Center for Disease Control website, traumatic brain injury, concussion syndrome for extensive authority substantiating this statement). The records establish head trauma symptoms at the time of the collision.

I have attached for you the records that we received from Dr. Russo from August 30, 2006 to present, as requested. The November 8, 2006 report states Ms. Tuoni's condition is unchanged and that Dr. Russo would henceforth provide support on a palliative/supportive basis because her Atlas had held for four months. Ms. Tuoni returned in October of 2006 and again in October 2008 when her Atlas would cause her difficulty. She returned for treatments in July 2009 through April 2010 with her symptoms unchanged and painful. You will note that when she carried groceries, it aggravated her condition. This loss of household services must be considered by you in your evaluation of her chronic condition.

We inquired as to Dr. Fahey's [sic] reports per your request. We understand that Francesca Tuoni visited Mr. Fahey in 2006. Mr. Fahey is not a licensed practitioner; therefore, Ms. Tuoni did not receive any care from him and sought out another Physical Therapist, Terry Kern, P.T. However, we attach a copy of the correspondence from Mr. Fahey's office to the effect that the records she brought in were returned to Ms. Tuoni and that he did not generate any records.

We also are attaching the records that we have received from Dr. Sloan in regards to the MRI. Dr. Sloan is one of several physicians at Manzano Medical Group. We directed this request to Dr. Sloan, as opposed to the group and were able to obtain the attached report. Dr. Sloan met with Ms. Tuoni in January 2006. She was suffering from chronic pain, pressure, numbness and tingling in various parts of her body. After examination she was diagnosed with chronic pain. Chronic conditions are deemed permanent and, indeed, she continues to suffer to this date. It is incredulous that you determine she is not entitled to compensation for a lifetime of pain and suffering related to her bodily injuries and all the consequences therefrom that affect every aspect of her life because you believe she didn't suffer trauma to the head.

I respectfully disagree with the analysis you provided in your short form letter. Ms. Tuoni repeatedly complained of numerous symptoms which are consistent with a closed head injury/concussion.

On May 19, 2010, we provided you with extensive medical records wherein we highlighted all of the symptoms consistent with a head injury one year post collision. For example, the November 14, 2005 records where she indicated that she couldn't remember phone numbers and suffered from anxiety. Occipital and suboccipital tenderness was noted. The "pressure" she feels is in the back of the head and she had buzzing episodes. The accident report on the day of the collision she complained of being light headed, memory loss and loss of balance, all consistent with the mechanics of her injury. The first year records also reflect dizziness, nausea and blurred vision. The May 2006 records of Dr. Russo notes a possible brain trauma. The brain is very soft tissue and is encased in the skull and when her head was thrown so far forward as to leave a lipstick stain on her blouse, we know the flexion and extension was severe, with the brain colliding against the walls of the skull. We provided this to your office after you indicated there was no symptomology related to her closed head injury until one year post incident. You repeat this unfounded position in your most recent correspondence.

You have required the insured to submit, now threefold, medical records for her claim. We believe that your explanation is insufficient in regards to your statutory duty to inform your insured of the reason for denial of her claim. Although you take issue with her head injury, you have completely ignored the other chronic neck and back injuries, loss of household services and loss of enjoyment of life in your evaluation.

Dear Avila:

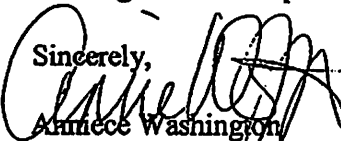

Thank you for providing us with the additional requested information. As per our conversation of 07/28/2010 and after careful review of the additional medical records and as per our letter dated May 28, 2010, our evaluation remains unchanged. The Albuquerque Fire Department Ambulance Report indicated that the insured was ambulatory at the scene, denied loss of consciousness, was alert and oriented and complained of minor pain to the right lateral neck and headache.

Again based on our continued evaluation of the prior and/or recent medicals provided, we continue to find it difficult to causally relate the head injury and the significant amount of treatment to the above accident. Therefore, we believe that the insured has been fairly compensated for her loss, and will be unable to make any offers at this time.

You have requested that we advise you of our choice of counsel in New Mexico so that we may discuss the issue of whether this matter will proceed to Litigation and/or Arbitration. You have also requested that we consider an IME. We will respond to your request respectfully.

Looking forward to speaking with you soon regarding the above matter.

Re: My Client/Your Customer: Francesca Tuoni
Your Claim No. DAB41867 DU
DOL: 9/13/2005

Dear Ms. Washington:

This letter is written to make a settlement demand in this underinsured motorist case.

Collision

The collision in this case occurred on September 13, 2005 as your insured Francesca Tuoni was on her way to work at Albuquerque High School where she was a Latin and English-as-a-Second Language teacher. Francesca was driving north on Girard. She was preparing to turn west on Lomas at the intersection and had the green arrow to do so. At-fault driver Melody Ripley, traveling east on Lomas at the intersection with Girard, ran her red light, (traveling 40 mph), and T-boned the driver's side of Francesca's 1989 Volvo sedan at a high rate of speed. The collision occurred just behind the driver's door. Ripley told the investigating officer that she had a green light when she drove into Francesca's car. Witnesses who were also traveling east on Lomas and traveling behind Francesca on Girard said that Melody ran a red light and confirmed that Francesca was making a turn on the green arrow. Not only did Ripley run the red light, she then lied about it to the police officer.

An ambulance came to the scene of the crash and examined Francesca. She experienced headache, neck and back pain immediately afterwards. Francesca had a lapse in consciousness at the time of the crash and doesn't remember anything until people helped her out of her car. Francesca's car had spun to the east from the impact. The collision occurred right in front of Jefferson Middle School. Children who know Francesca saw the collision and came out to help her. Francesca was both concerned about not upsetting the children and not wanting to be late to school. She turned down the EMT's recommendation that she go to the ER. She instead called her daughter to take her in to work.

Francesca experienced a severe hyperflexion injury to her neck as evidenced by the fact that a smudge of red lipstick was found on the front left breast of her white shirt. The lipstick stain was a result of her head and neck snapping down severely in the crash.

Dear Mr. Tiwald:

This letter is in response to your recent demand for the Underinsured Motorists policy limits of $100,000, (herein referenced as "UIM") of the above insured's policy. Please see the attached copy of our letter dated 4/30/2010 to attorney Robert Avila, who represented Francesca Tuoni at that time. We advised him that the insured had been fairly compensated for her loss from the underlying tort settlement, and therefore we would be unable to extend any UIM offers.

As you are aware, New Mexico has a six year Statute of Limitations on written contracts, inclusive of UM/UIM. Therefore, based on our letter of 4/30/2010, indicating that no UIM offers were being extended, it is our position that the UIM claim is outside the applicable Statute of Limitations. We must respectfully decline to extend any UIM offers to Mrs. Tuoni, since her claim is no longer viable based on our review of the file.

If you have any questions or additional information for our consideration, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
